Non PFA Sanctioned Tournaments

Players participating in a non PFA sanctioned event (Tournament organised by a non-affiliated Club or promoter) must be made aware that PFA Insurance Cover is null and void for the Tournament.

Players entering those non sanctioned events will forfeit their right to be selected to represent their State in Interstate Competitions and Australia in International Competitions.

Umpires entering such non PFA sanctioned events will automatically lose their Umpire status and have their Umpire's Licence withdrawn.

Coaches entering such non PFA sanctioned events will automatically lose their Coach status and have their Coach's Licence withdrawn.

Members (Clubs) should not advertise and promote those Non PFA sanctioned events and inform their Club Members of the above. Unlicensed players and non-affiliated Clubs should not be invited to participate in an official PFA competition.

All Members (Clubs) and their Players should direct newcomers towards established Clubs or towards Leagues or PFA Officials.
