Cancellation

Please note some policies may be subject to cancellation conditions and premium penalties. We suggest you check with our office prior to cancellation.

Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer, you have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably expect to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of insurance and if so, on what terms. You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary, or reinstate a contract of general insurance. Your duty however does not require disclosure of matter that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer

That is common knowledge
 That your insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of business, ought to know

As to which the compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer. If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the insurer may be entitled to reduce the liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.
