Anyone for pétanque?

HAVE YOU EVER played pétanque? Not sure? What about boule? Still not sure? What about that game that you've seen played on the beach with steel balls?

They are of course all the same game and one that can be enjoyed by the whole family.

Interested? The Prospect Pétanque Club at 14-34 Buchanan Street, Nailsworth is the place to come. Whether you are a beginner or highly skilled, old, middle-aged or young, strong and athletic or a little more sedentary this sport has something for you.

Wednesday evenings are convivial social occasions which combine friendly games with a glass of red wine and a sausage sizzle.

Saturday afternoons offer an alternative opportunity for a friendly relaxed game or two where you can further develop your skills and meet new people.

Sundays gives you a chance to put these skills to the test during tournaments held at Prospect Pétanque or at one of a number of other competitive venues in the city.

Play at Prospect Pétanque.

Competitive pétanque can lead to opportunities to represent the State in national competitions held around Australia or represent Australia in international tournaments.

A South Australian female junior player for instance has just returned from the World Titles in Japan and six veteran players (over sixty years old) from the Prospect Club formed part of an Australian team who in April beat New Zealand to win the annual Trans-Tasman trophy.

Prospect will be a host club for pétanque Master's Games events in October this year.
